

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE ¹

FOREIGN ECONOMIC INTELLIGENCE

(Effective 25 October 1982)

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947 and Executive Order 12333, an Economic Intelligence Committee is herewith established.

1. Mission

The Committee will advise and assist the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) in the discharge of his duties and responsibilities with respect to the production of foreign economic intelligence and will promote the effective use of Intelligence Community resources for this purpose.

2. Functions

Under the general guidance of the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, the Committee will:

- a. keep the DCI apprised on the responsiveness of foreign economic intelligence production to national security requirements;
- b. provide guidance to Intelligence Community collection components; and
- c. provide intelligence support to United States Government entities charged with formulating United States international economic policies.

3. Intelligence Community Responsibilities

On request by the Committee Chairman, Intelligence Community components will provide, within established security safeguards, information pertinent to the Committee's mission and functions.

4. Composition and Organization

The Committee Chairman will be appointed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

The members of the Committee will be representatives designated by Intelligence Community principals.

The Chairman will establish subcommittees and other working groups as required.

With the approval of the DCI, the Chairman may invite representatives of relevant United States Government entities with national security interests to participate as appropriate.

The Committee will be supported by an Executive Secretariat.

¹ This directive supersedes DCID No. 3/1, 18 May 1976.
